

under what was to her the most terrible blow which could have come, but - totally she had failed in strength & her heart was not working well & the heart was too much for her. Her three daughters, for she always included me with the other two with her at the end & now she has gone to her son who was the joy of her life & I am so happy for her.

My dear Mr. Pfeiffer -

It certainly was kind of you to write to me when you heard of Mrs. Hall's death. I know you will understand me when I say that I have only thankfulness for her going.
She was 80 years old & had been so brave & fine

If you are down in N.Y. I wonder if you would care to come out here & dine with me some evening? I should be glad to see you & although I am in a tiny apartment & living in a rather haphazard fashion I can still have a dinner cooked & served under my own vine & fig tree. That is part in just to make you feel that it would be coming to the country. Any day that you could come I would let you know the train & my willies. I might will meet you at the station.

Since commencing this letter I have had a caller & I must tell you about it or rather her. Some body downstairs opened the door & this individual came up. I thought it might be a maid looking for a place, as I said come in. She enlightened me & she & said she supposed I would want to turn her out as she was from the World. I said certainly I felt like it. Then she began & said she wanted
